RAY-BAR ENGINEERING CORP.
RETURN / REPLACEMENT POLICY

All Ray-Bar materials and products are custom fabricated to customers written descriptions, specifications and sizes on Ray-Bar order form. Due to the custom nature and specialized use and applications of these products, once an order is placed, there are no cancellations or returns permitted. Upon receiving, customer must immediately and thoroughly inspect all materials / products in the presence of the driver.

The only exception is if the product is fabricated in error whereby upon confirmation and reasonable proof and documentation of manufacturer's error or discrepancy, Ray-Bar will offer to replace the product or material based on customer's timely and immediate notification to Ray-Bar of the error or discrepancy in writing within 48 hours of receipt of materials / products. At its sole discretion, Ray-Bar may require return of the original product in good condition. Please note that on all glass products, Purchaser / Customer (you) assumes full responsibility to promptly and fully inspect the product upon receiving it in the presence of the shipping company / delivery truck driver BEFORE signing the bill of lading receipt. Failure by Purchaser / Customer to properly inspect AT THAT TIME and note any damage on the bill of lading receipt may void any claims or rights against the shipping company for reimbursement. Ray-Bar does not accept any liability or responsibility for refunds or replacements for any damages caused by the shipping company. However, if you have properly inspected the freight at the time of receiving and noted any damage on the bill of lading receipt in the presence of the delivering company, Ray-Bar will assist in the filing of the freight claim. IF you sign for the glass without inspecting it and there is damage, Ray-Bar will NOT absorb your loss or assist in any reimbursement attempts due to your failure to follow these receiving instructions.
